

Key subject knowledge

- Could be just visual or a combination of text and visuals
- Title reflects content: How to....
- May define the goal in the opening
- Contain a list of equipment needed
- Sequential order: may use devices such as bullet points, numbers and letters to support
- May sum up the process in the conclusions
- Imperative verb: Fetch the ball... Slice the bread...
- Could include warnings of what not to do: Be careful not to
- May offer additional advice/suggestions: It may be useful to....
 You could...
- Could be informal/formal depending on audience
- Adjectives and adverbs to support the reader's understanding, rather than describing for effect
- May directly address the reader: You will enjoy this... Have you considered...
- Could be used within another text type

 Ensure something is done effectively/correctly

Ideas for publication

- Rules for a game
- Recipes
- How to make something
- Directions
- Experiments
- Signs/notices

Consider carefully who your audience will be. This will inform how it is written, how much detail is needed and the level of formality

Progression

The table below illustrates progression in the national curriculum and how it could be linked to the text type

	Read, follow and understand simple instructions and link these to their own experiences
	Give oral instructions
	Discuss the significance of the title
	Compose instructions orally before writing
	Sequence instructions and/or write a sequence of instructions
Year 1	Discuss instructions with the teacher or other pupils
	Read instructions out loud
	Re-read to check for sense
	Use 'and' to join clauses
	Punctuate using capital letters and full stops (other punctuation could be used: question marks, exclamation marks)
	Use a capital letter for people, places, days of week and person pronoun, 'I' as needed
	Discuss and give views on instructional writing: clarity, sequence, language, vocabulary, sense
	Write instructions about real events
	Have a clear purpose for instructions
	Before writing, say and note key ideas and appropriate vocabulary Punctuate using capital letter and full stops (other punctuation could be used: exclamation marks, question marks, commas for lists and apostrophes for contraction and possession)
Year 2	Statements and commands (other sentence types could be used: questions, exclamations)
	Noun phrases to support clarity/essential information (little glue, blue paper, use a sharp knife)
	Conjunctions (if, when, so that, etc.)
	Adverbs of time to support sequence (first, then, after that, etc.)
	Imperative verb form (fetch, get, etc.)
	Evaluate writing for sense, correct verb form, including the progressive (where appropriate)
	Proof-read for spelling, punctuation and grammar
	Read aloud with appropriate intonation to support meaning

	Read and discuss a variety of instructions that are structured	Year 3 (Grammar specific) in different ways and have different purposes (Who is this	Extend the range of sentences with more than one clause by using a wider range of for? Why might you need this?)	conjunctions, including when, if, because, although
	Explore and discuss vocabulary and grammar used	Express time, place and cause using conjunctions [for example, when, before, after, while, so,
	Ask questions to develop understanding	because], adverbs [for example, then, next, soon, therefore], or prepositions [for example,
	Discuss how language, structure and presentation support	before, after, during, in, because of]
	meaning	Introduction to paragraphs as a way to group related material
	Discuss and record ideas in advance of writing	Headings and sub-headings to aid presentation
	Increase range of sentence structures	Year 4 (Grammar specific)
	Use a wider range of conjunctions to explain (when, if,	Extend the range of sentences with more than one clause by using a wider range of because, although, etc.)	conjunctions, including when, if, because, although
Year 3/4	Select nouns and pronouns for clarity and cohesion	Noun phrases expanded by the addition of modifying adjectives, nouns and preposition
	Adverbs and prepositions to express time and cause	phrases (e.g. the teacher expanded to: the strict maths teacher with curly hair)
	(meanwhile, after a while, with, before, until, onto, etc.)	Fronted adverbials [for example, Later that day , I heard the bad news.]
	Use simple organisational devices such as headings and sub-	Use of paragraphs to organise ideas around a theme headings	Appropriate choice of pronoun or noun within and across sentences to aid cohesion and
	Evaluate own and other's writing by suggesting	avoid repetition
	improvements	Apostrophes to mark plural possession [for example, the girl's name, the girls' names]
	Suggest changes to grammar and vocabulary to improve	Use of commas after fronted adverbials
	consistency	ose of commas after fronted daterolais
	Proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors
	Read aloud with appropriate intonation controlling the tone and volume so that the meaning is clear

Read and discuss a wider range of instructions with different structures and purposes
Recommend instructions, giving reasons for their choices:

Compare instructions: This one has... so that..., but this one doesn't... because...

Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning

Identify audience and purpose for writing, selecting the appropriate form and using other similar writing as models for their own

Note initial ideas

Year 5/6

This one is clear because...

Select appropriate grammar and vocabulary, giving attention to enhancing meaning

Use modal verbs or adverbs to indicate degrees of possibility (you could..., this will certainly...)

As appropriate: commas to clarify meaning; hyphens to avoid ambiguity; bracket, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis, semi-colons, colons or dashes to mark boundaries between independent clauses

Colons to introduce a list

Punctuating bullet points consistently

Using further organisational and presentational devices to structure and guide the reader: headings, bullet points, underlining could be used

Evaluate how effective their own and others' writing is Propose changes to vocabulary, grammar and punctuation to clarify meaning

Ensure consistent and correct use of tense throughout Ensure appropriate register for writing

Proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors

Year 5 (Grammar specific)

Relative clauses beginning with who, which, where, when, whose, that, or an omitted relative pronoun

Indicating degrees of possibility using adverbs [for example, perhaps, surely] or modal verbs [for example, might, should, will, must]

Devices to build cohesion within a paragraph [for example, then, after that, this, firstly] Linking ideas across paragraphs using adverbials of time [for example, later], place [for example, nearby] and number [for example, secondly] or tense choices [for example, he had seen her before]

Brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis

Use of commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity

Use expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely

Use the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause

Year 6 (Grammar specific)

The difference between vocabulary typical of informal speech and vocabulary appropriate for formal speech and writing [for example, find out – discover; ask for – request; go in – enter] The difference between structures typical of informal speech and structures appropriate for formal speech and writing [for example, the use of question tags: He's your friend, isn't he?, or the use of subjunctive forms such as If I were or Were they to come in some very formal writing and speech]

Layout devices [for example, headings, sub-headings, columns, bullets, or tables, to structure text]

Use of the semi-colon, colon and dash to mark the boundary between independent clauses [for example, It's raining; I'm fed up]

Use of the colon to introduce a list and use of semi-colons within lists

Punctuation of bullet points to list information

How hyphens can be used to avoid ambiguity [for example, man eating shark versus maneating shark, or recover versus re-cover]

Use expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely Use the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause
